

2021 Seoul APRI Network Conference

Please refer to the 2021 Seoul APRI Network Conference schedule below.
Due to the COVID-19 restrictions, this conference will be held online.

Theme Current Issues and Tasks to Establish Research Ethics in the Era of COVID-19

Conference goals

Reinforcing the network for establishing research ethics in Asia-Pacific countries, as well as promoting the achievements of Korea's research ethics establishment. Also, to exchange information and efforts to further put in place research ethics in each country and set a culture of Responsible Conduct of Research (RCR) that meets a global standard.

Date and time February 25, 2021 from 09:30 - 18:00 (Korea Standard Time)

2021 Seoul APRI Network Conference Website

(Pre-registration and access link to conference): www.2021seoulapri.org

Benefits of participating 2021 Seoul APRI Network Conference Participation Certificate (3 hours)

Pre-registration January 18, 2021 – February 24, 2021,
until 18:00 (Korea Standard Time)

Registration fee FREE

Additional Information

Speakers :

- The program will be conducted live online for one day and streamed on YouTube. However, for presenters who would not be able to stream live, kindly send a pre-recorded video of your presentation by January 25, 2021.
- Each session consists of presentations and discussions for 120 minutes. Each presentation should be 20-25 minutes. Kindly be mindful of your time and try not to exceed the time limit.

Participants :

- Each session consists of four presenters, and the Q&A discussion will be held after each session. Participants may ask questions via live chat.
- Conference Book provided: PDF (downloadable on the day of the event upon participation).
- You may find more details about the conference on our website at www.2021seoulapri.org. You may also find the survey link. Survey participation period is from February 25, 2021 until February 26, 2021.
- Only those who have filled out the survey and watched the full video will receive a Conference Participation Certificate (3 hours). The certificate will be issued via e-mail (stated in the pre-registration) from February 25, 2021 to March 12, 2021.

2021 Seoul APRI Network Conference

Current Issues and Tasks to Establish Research Ethics in the Era of COVID-19

Date and time	February 25, 2021 from 09:30 -18:00 (Korea Standard Time)
Location	Seoul, South Korea
Host	National Research Foundation of Korea (NRF)
Organizer	Korean University Council of Research Ethics (KUCRE)
Sponsor	Ministry of Education (MOE) Korean Association of Academic Societies (KAOAS) The Korean Federation of Science and Technology Societies (KOFST) The Center for Research Ethics Information (CRE)

Time	Agenda and Presenter	Moderator
08:30-09:30	Registration
09:30-10:00	Opening ceremony	InJae Lee (Director of KUCRE, Director of CRE, Professor at Seoul National University of Education, 2021 Seoul APRI Local-lead, South Korea)
	Welcome Address • Chang-Sub Uhm (Head Director and President of KUCRE, Professor at Korea University, 2021 Seoul APRI Co-chair, South Korea) Congratulatory remarks • Ministry of Education • Michael Kalichman (Director of Research Ethics Program at the University of California San Diego, 2021 Seoul APRI Co-chair, USA) 2021 Seoul APRI Network Conference Teaser Video
10:00-12:00	Keynote lecture	Zoë Hammatt (Z Consulting, LLC, 2021 Seoul APRI Co-chair, USA)
	The Role and Responsibility of National Research Foundation of Korea in COVID-19 Era • Jung-Hye Roe (President of the National Research Foundation of Korea, South Korea) The Importance of Research Integrity During the COVID-19 Pandemic • Daniel Barr (Principal Research Integrity Advisor at Royal Melbourne Institute of Technology, 2021 Seoul APRI Co-Chair, Australia) Research Ethics Stakeholder's Role to Prevent Research Ethics Violations • InJae Lee (Director of KUCRE, Director of CRE, Professor at Seoul National University of Education, 2021 Seoul APRI Local-lead) Q&A
12:00-13:00	Lunch
13:00-15:00	Plenary 1: Efforts and Results to Establish Research Integrity with the Government After the 3rd APRI Conference	Prasit Palittapongarnpim (Professor at Mahidol University, Thailand)
	Progress in Universities, Research Institutions, and Grant Agencies in Promoting Responsible Conduct of Research • Mai Har Sham (Pro-Vice-Chancellor and Vice President at the Chinese University of Hong Kong, Hong Kong) Making Steady Progress: Efforts and Results to Ensure Research Integrity for Taiwan Scientific Communities • Chien Chou (Chair Professor at National Chiao Tung University, Chinese Taipei) Collaboration, Division of Labor, and False Science • Li Tang (Professor at Fudan University, China) National Research and Development Innovation Act and Research Ethics in Korea • Ock-Joo Kim (Department of History of Medicine & Medical Humanities, Seoul National University, South Korea) Q&A
	Plenary 2: Sharing How to Identify Research Misconduct Verification	Ping Sun (Editor in Chief of Siyidi International Education Consulting and Services Co. Ltd, China)
	Toward Global Standardization of Conducting Fair Investigations of Allegations of Research Misconduct • Iekuni Ichikawa (Project Professor at Shinshu University, Japan) Universality Principle of Research Integrity: Sociocultural Specificities Should Not Be the Last Refuge of RI Violations • Ovid Tzeng (Academician and Distinguished Research Fellow at Academia Sinica, Chairman of the University Alliance in Talent Development, Chinese Taipei) Research Misconduct Investigations: Lessons Learned • Susan Garfinkel (Assistant Vice President of Research Compliance at The Ohio State University, USA) Management of COI in Confucian Culture • Hwan-Jin NHO (Professor at the University of Science and Technology, South Korea) Q&A
15:00-15:20	Break
15:20-17:20	Plenary 3: Data Integrity and Publication Ethics	Jennifer Byrne (Professor in Faculty of Medicine and Health at The University of Sydney, Australia)
	Publication Ethics: Lessons and Challenges • Cheol-Heui Yun (Professor in Department of Agricultural Biotechnology at Seoul National University, South Korea) Improving Publication Ethics: KAMJE Experiences • Young Yoo (Professor in the Department of Pediatrics at Korea University Medical College, South Korea) Research and Publication Ethics in the Times of COVID-19 • Basil D'souza (Vice President of Cactus Communications, India) Developments of the Methods and Tools for Preventing Research Misconduct • Kei Kojo (Co-founder of LPIXEL, Japan) Q&A
	Plenary 4: Challenges of Research Ethics/Integrity and RCR Education	Danny Chan (Professor and Director of School of Biomedical Sciences at the University of Hong Kong, Hong Kong)
	A Young Scientists-led Initiative to Foster Responsible Conduct of Research in Southeast Asia • Deming Chau (Senior Lecturer at University Putra Malaysia, Malaysia) Current Issues in Promoting Academic Integrity and RCR Education in Japan • Jun Fudano (Professor in the Center for Higher Education Studies at Waseda University, Japan) Preventing Research Misconduct Through Education: The 2020 Plagiarism Case • Sophia Pan (Assistant Research Fellow at National Chiao Tung University, Chinese Taipei) Can We Extend RCR Education Beyond the Classroom? • Michael Kalichman (Professor in the Research Ethics Program at the University of California San Diego, 2021 Seoul APRI Co-chair, USA) Q&A
17:20-17:30	Closing	InJae Lee (Director of KUCRE, Director of CRE, Professor at Seoul National University of Education, 2021 Seoul APRI Local-lead, South Korea)
17:30-18:00	Planning Committee Meeting	Chang-Sub Uhm (Head Director and President of KUCRE, Professor at Korea University, 2021 Seoul APRI Co-chair, South Korea)

2021 Seoul APRI Network Conference

Current Issues and Tasks to Establish Research Ethics in the Era of COVID-19

Keynote Speakers

The Role and Responsibility of National Research Foundation of Korea in COVID-19 Era

Jung-Hye Roe
President of the National Research Foundation of Korea, South Korea

The Importance of Research Integrity During the COVID-19 Pandemic

Daniel Barr
Principal Research Integrity Advisor at Royal Melbourne Institute of Technology, 2021 Seoul APRI Co-Chair, Australia

Research Ethics Stakeholder's Role to Prevent Research Ethics Violations

InJae Lee
Director of KUCRE, Director of CRE, Professor at Seoul National University of Education, 2021 Seoul APRI Local-lead

Speakers

Progress in Universities, Research Institutions, and Grant Agencies in Promoting Responsible Conduct of Research

Mai Har Sham
Hong Kong

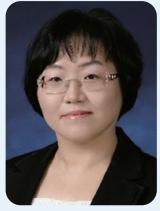

Making Steady Progress: Efforts and Results to Ensure Research Integrity for Taiwan Scientific Communities

Chien Chou
Chinese Taipei

Collaboration, Division of Labor, and False Science

Li Tang
China

National Research and Development Innovation Act and Research Ethics in Korea

Ock-Joo Kim
South Korea

Toward Global Standardization of Conducting Fair Investigations of Allegations of Research Misconduct

Iekuni Ichikawa
Japan

Universality Principle of Research Integrity: Sociocultural Specificities Should Not Be the Last Refuge of RI Violations

Ovid Tzeng
Chinese Taipei

Research Misconduct Investigations: Lessons Learned

Susan Garfinkel
USA

Management of COI in Confucian Culture

Hwan-Jin NHO
South Korea

Publication Ethics: Lessons and Challenges

Cheol-Heui Yun
South Korea

Improving Publication Ethics: KAMJE Experiences

Young Yoo
South Korea

Research and Publication Ethics in the Times of COVID-19

Basil D'souza
India

Developments of the Methods and Tools for Preventing Research Misconduct

Kei Kojo
Japan

A Young Scientists-led Initiative to Foster Responsible Conduct of Research in Southeast Asia

Deming Chau
Malaysia

Current Issues in Promoting Academic Integrity and RCR Education in Japan

Jun Fudano
Japan

Preventing Research Misconduct Through Education: The 2020 Plagiarism Case

Sophia Pan
Chinese Taipei

Can We Extend RCR Education Beyond the Classroom?

Michael Kalichman
USA

